

Diana Ridjic

Partner

Diana is registered as a Cognitive Behaviour Psychotherapist and supervisor at the Association of CBT in Bosnia and Herzegovina. She currently works as a Psychologist for the Department of Occupational Health and Safety of Police officers and International Organisation for Migration (IOM). Diana studied Psychology at the University of Sarajevo, B&H and completed her MSc on Cross-cultural & Migration psychology issues. She has worked as a CBT therapist for more than a decade, and supervised at a private Counselling Centre - Domino in Sarajevo. With more than 300 successful cases to her name, she is trained on a variety of techniques, clinical assessment tools and psychological interventions such as Schema, ACT and Compassion Focus Approach. She runs the official education for CBT in B&H and is an official representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the European Association for Behaviour and Cognitive Therapies. Actively devoted to CPD and focused on research in psychotherapy processes, she is published in the fields of CBT and psychology of migration. Diana lives in Sarajevo, likes to travel, meet with friends and spend quality time with her family.

